RAISIN EXPORT PAYMENT PROGRAM TMX 95a

BULLETIN NO. 4

January 7, 1953

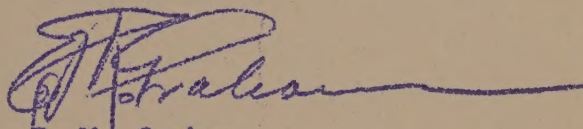

TO THE PERSON ADDRESSED:

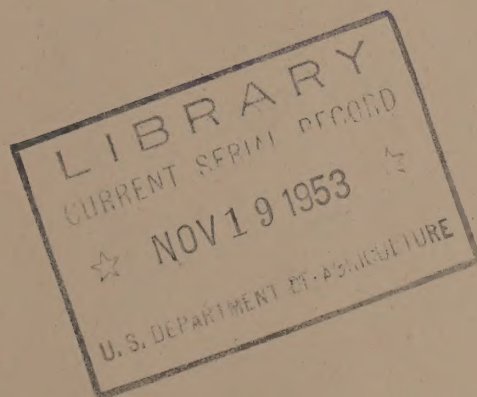

All participants and potential participants in Raisin Export Payment Program TMX 95a are again cautioned to familiarize themselves with terms and conditions of the program prior to making exports thereunder. This matter was called to your attention in Press Release dated September 25, 1952, and, re-emphasized in Bulletin No. 1 dated October 23, 1952, in which it was stated that:

"No application should be submitted to the Department, or commitment made, in anticipation of an export payment until the exporter has read and understands the terms and conditions of the Raisin Export Payment Program."

Failure to comply with any of the requirements of the program may result in disallowance of a claim for export payment with respect to the applicable transaction.

Very truly yours,

E. M. Graham
Representative of the Secretary

RAISIN EXPORT PAYMENT PROGRAM TMX 95a

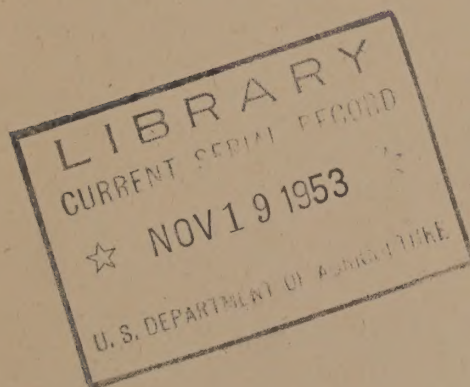

BULLETIN NO. 5

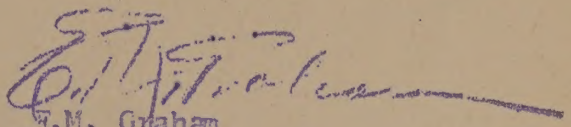

March 16, 1953

TO THE PERSON ADDRESSED:

It is recognized that in certain eligible foreign countries the allocation of dollars for the purchase of imports is a matter which is strictly within the discretion of the exchange authority, or other government agency, of the importing country. Therefore, for purposes of program participation, the inclusion in a sales contract of a condition making the sale "subject to dollars being allocated" (or a similar condition) will be considered as a sales contract as defined in the program. Accordingly, exporters may submit applications covering such transactions for consideration in accordance with provisions of Section 518.403 of the program terms and conditions.

Very truly yours,

E.M. Graham
Representative of the Secretary

RAISIN EXPORT PAYMENT PROGRAM TMX 95a

BULLETIN NO. 7

AUGUST 6, 1953

TO THE PERSON ADDRESSED:

The following self-explanatory press release was issued today by the U. S. Department of Agriculture:

"Time for Making Raisin Export Sales Extended from 8/10/53 to 8/25/53:

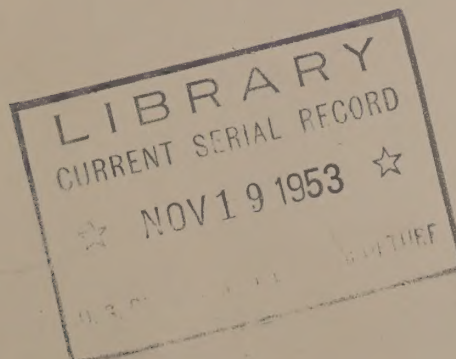

"The Department of Agriculture announced today an amendment, effective August 11, 1953, of the 1952-53 raisin export payment program to give exporters additional time to make export sales of raisins.

"The amendment changes from 12 o'clock midnight, August 10, 1953 to 12 o'clock midnight, August 25, 1953 the final time for exporters to enter into sales contracts for the exportation of raisins under the program. The final dates of August 29, August 31, and September 30, 1953 (specified in the program) for filing applications, exportation, and filing claims, respectively, are not changed by the amendment. Exporters are cautioned to operate within the specified time limits to be eligible for export payments.

"The extension of time for sales applies only to natural Thompson Seedless, Sultan, and Muscat raisins, except soda-dipped (Valencia) and layer Muscats. Golden Bleached Thompson Seedless raisins and Zante currants were removed previously as eligible varietal types under the program.

"The program was put into effect on October 15, 1952. Through July 25, 1953, applications to export under the program had been approved for 87,204 tons of raisins."
